HOW IS HE TO GET BACK?

AGAIN-"WHEN SHALL I AWAKE?" Dr. Talmage Endeavors to Show What Are the Obstacles to Return to the Path of Rectitude, and How Those

Obstacles May be Surmounted. ULEVELAND, ORIO. Dec. 5,-The Rev. T. De-Witt Talmage, D. D., preached here to-day. Following is hissermon: Subject: "Off Track— Hard to Get on Again." Text: Proverbs xxiii, 35, "When shall I awake? I will seek it yet sgain."

With an insight into human nature such as no other man ever reached, Solomon, in my text, sketches the mental operations of one who, having stepped aside from the path of rectitude, desires to return. With a wish for something better he said: "When shall I rectitude, desires to return. With a wish for something better he said: "When shall I awake? When shall I come out of this horrid nightmare of infquity?" By seried upon by uneradicated habit and forced down hill by his passions he crice out: "I will seek it yet seemed to be the seemed of the seemed with an elegant literature addressed to young men, pointing out to them all the dangers and portis of life-complete maps of the voyage, showing all the rocks, the quicksands, the shoals. But suppose a man has already made shipwreot; suppose he is already off the track; suppose he has already gone astray, how is he to get back? This is a field comparatively untouched. There are those in this audience who, with to hear such a discussion-without who, with the very passion of their agonized soul, are ready to hear such a discussion-without one he had been been and the seemed and the who, with the sum of the honday of the seemed and the honday of the pale of Christian sympathy, and that the sermon can hardly be expected to address them, then, at this moment, I give them my right hand, and call them brother. Look up. There is glorious and triumphant hope for you yet. I sound the trumpet of Gospel deliverance. The church is ready to spread a banquet at your return, and then how you feel to be the obselves of your emancipation. So far as God may help me, I propose to show what are the obselves of your emancipation.

The church is ready to sproad a banquet at your return, and the hierarchs of banquet at your return, and the hierarchs of beaven to fall into line of bannered procession at the news of your emancipation. So far as God may help me, I propose to show what are the obstacles of your return, and then how you are to surmount those obstacles.

The first difficulty in the way of your return is the force of moral gravitation. Just as there is a natural law which brings down to the earth anything you throw into the air, so there is a natural law which brings down to the earth anything you throw into the air, so there is a corresponding moral gravitation. In other words, it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to go up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to do up; it is easier to go down than it is to go up; it is easier to go down than it is to go up; it is easier to go down of them good, some of them accorded the interest of the good of them are pine and the interest of up you have formed certain courses of region in the your have for take but a moment of self-inspection to find out that there is in all our souls a force of moral gravitation. But that gravitation may be resisted. Just as you may pick up from the earth comething and hold it in your hand toward heaven, test to be the pawer of God's grace, a soul fallen may be lifted toward peace. It is not all the may have a force of moral gravitation in every one of ut, but power in God's grace to overcome that force of moral gravitation in every one of ut, but power in God's grace to overcome that force of moral gravitation in every one of ut, but power in God's grace to overcome that force of moral gravita

My friends, there are thousands and ten of thousands of men losing their souls in that way. It is the one round more.

I have also to say that if a man wauts to return from evil practices society regulses him. Desiring for reform, he says: "Now, I will shake off my old associates, and I will find Christian compenionship." And he appears at the church door some Sabbath day, and the usher greets him with a look, as much as to say: "Why, you bere? You are the inst man I ever expected to see at church! Come, take this seat right down by the door?" Instead of saying: "Good morning: I am glad you are here. Come: I will give you a first-rate seat, right up by the pulpil." Well, the prodigal, not yet discouraged, enters a prayer meeting, and some Christian man, with, more seal than common sense, says: "Glad to see you. The dying thief was sawrd, and I suppose there is mercy for you." The young man, disgusted, chilled, throws himself back on his diguity, resolved he never will enter the house of God again. Ferhaps not quite fully discouraged about refermation, he sides up by some highly respectable man he used to know, going down the street, and immediately the respectable man has an errand down some other street! Well, the prodigal, wishing to return, takes some member of a Christian association by the hand, or tries to. The Christian young man looks at him, looks at the faded apparel and the marks of dissipation, and instead of giving him a warm grip by the hand, offers him the tip end of the lost finding a man in the feet.

I remember in the late war! was at Antictam, and I went into the hospitals after the battle, and I said to a man: "Meee are you hurt" "He made no answer, but held up his arm, swollen and splintered. I saw where he was hurt. The simple fact is, when a man has a wounded soul, all he has to do it to hold it up before a sympathetic Lord and get it healed. It does not take any long prayer. Just hold up the wound. Oh! it is no small thing when a man is nervous, and weak, and exhausted, coming from his evil ways, to feel that God puts two omnipotent arms around about him and says: "Young man, I will stand by you. The mountains may depart and the hills be moved, but I will never fail you." And then, as the coul thinks the news is too good to be true, and caunto believe it, and looks up in God's face, God lifts His right had and takes an cost, an afidavit, saying: "As I live, wills the lord God. They held him fast, and they put the cup to his lips and they forced down the strong drink. What chance is there for such a young man?

I counsel you also, seek Christian advice. Every Christian must be bond to holp you. If you find no other human ear willing to listen to your story of struggle, come it on, and I will, by every sympathy of my beart, and overy prayer, and every toil of my hand, stand beside you in the struggle for reformation; and as I hope to have my own sins forgiven and hope to be acquitted at the judgment scat of Christ, I will not betray you. First of all, seek God; then seek Christian counsel. Gather up all the carries of body, mind, and soul, and, appealing to God for success, declare this day everiasting war sgainst all drinking habits, all gaming practices, all houses of sin. Half-and-half work will smount to nothing: it must be a
